The Muñasque family of Opon (Lapu-Lapu City), Cebu

A genealogical reconstruction from the family spreadsheet “FERNANDO VALIENTE MUÑASQUE.xlsx”, with independent web research.

Printable edition, 28 October 2026.

1,789 people in 10 generations descending from Fernando Umpad Muñasque and Saturnina N. Valiente.

> How to read this document: Part A is the written report with its charts. Part B is the complete descendant register, numbered so that 1 is Fernando, 1.3 his third listed child, 1.3.2 that child's second child, and so on. Each entry gives spouse(s), residence where known, the spreadsheet row it came from, and a “low confidence” mark where the placement is uncertain. The wide branch charts are in the online version and the SVG files; they do not fit a printed page.

Part A — Report

Research report, 28 October 2026. Principal individual: Fernando Umpad Muñasque (progenitor, 1st generation). Supplied material: one family spreadsheet. Outside research: web search only (most record websites could not be opened from this session; see §6).

1. Executive summary

- The spreadsheet records 1,789 people across 10 generations from Fernando Umpad Muñasque: 1,332 blood descendants and 457 spouses or partners. The reconstructed tree gives each person a unique ID, a generation number, parents, spouse(s) and children, with a confidence label on every link.
- The earliest named ancestors are Alejandro Muñasque and Saturnina Umpad, Fernando's parents. They appear only as a header line with no dates, so they are low confidence (named, but unverified).
- Only one person in the whole file has dates: Emiliano Valiente Muñasque, born 20 May 1857, died 19 February 1940 aged 83. Everything else is undated. Generation-based birth estimates are given, clearly marked as estimates.
- Fernando married Saturnina N. Valiente; their nine children (Emiliano, Agripina, Andrea, Marcos, Florintina, Epifanio, Sotero, Cosmiano and Cruz, all "Valiente Muñasque") head the nine branches of the tree. Branch sizes range from 16 to 391 recorded descendants.
- The family is from Opon, Mactan Island, Cebu (today Lapu-Lapu City). By the 20th century most branches had moved to Mindanao: Lanao del Norte, the South Cotabato / General Santos / Sarangani settlement belt, North Cotabato, Agusan del Sur, Bukidnon, Misamis Occidental and Zamboanga del Sur, with smaller groups in Manila, the USA, Germany and Australia.
- Independent corroboration was found for thirteen descendants, including two of Fernando's sons. Marcos Valiente Muñasque was Municipal President of Medellin, northern Cebu, from 1923 to 1933, and Cosmiano Valiente Muñasque sat on the municipal council of Kolambugan, Lanao, in 1945–1946 (local-history columns and the Official Gazette). Congressman Benhur Lago Salimbangon (1945–2020) is recorded by outside sources as the son of Martin Salimbangon and Milagros Lago, exactly as the spreadsheet has it. Fr. Rosalio N. Muñasque (died 2003) was a priest of the Diocese of Marbel. "Atty. Benjamin N. Muñasque" was Clerk of Court of the Court of First Instance of Cotabato in the 1970s. An evangelist "Sulpicio Y. Muñasque" reached General Santos from Lala, Lanao del Norte, on 7 March 1939, and a street there carries his name; he matches the spreadsheet's Sulpicio Ynot Muñasque. Col. Coronado "Stim" Perez Muñasque, Marcos's son, appears as a director of College Assurance Plans and as a Makati creditor (2002–2008) and built a resort at Kawit, Medellin.
- No outside record was found for any of the first three generations. The 19th-century parish registers of Opon exist on FamilySearch (collection 5000324) but need a login; searching them is the single most valuable next step.
- The compiler's generation labels and colours contain many slips. 133 rows were re-attached using the Filipino naming convention (a child's middle name is the mother's maiden surname) and the compiler's own branch sheets; every change is listed with its reason. 208 people remain flagged low confidence.

2. Inventory of supplied material

Item	What it is	Assessment
S1 · sheet "FERNANDO"	Master descendant list, 1,796 name rows in one column; generation shown by font colour (legend in cells J403–J413); spouses indented; "#" marks additional partners; "(D)" marks deceased	Derivative, unsourced family compilation. Created 14 Sep 2014, last saved 12 Jun 2020 (file metadata). No birth, marriage or death dates except Emiliano's. No places except in the branch sheets.
S2 · sheets 2–10	An earlier or parallel version, one sheet per branch, printed as pages 1–36; column F gives a residence for 72 people; a few titles (Atty., Engr., Dr., Col., Cong., Rev. Fr., "nun")	Same compiler. Spelling differs from the master sheet in about 50 names; those variants are recorded on each person. Sheet7 carries an older, different colour legend.
S3 · note in J416–J418	"the words muñasque is come from three person namely: MUKILAN-ANAÑAS-ROQUE according to Mr. Amador Piligro 97 yrs old wen I interviewed him last 2006 at Opon, Cebu"	Oral tradition, second-hand, recorded eight years after the interview. No documentary support found.
S4 · file properties	Author "User", last modified by "MarkhyNet"	Shows the compilation is recent (2014–2020).

The spreadsheet is a derivative source: nobody's birth, baptism or marriage record is cited, and the compiler's own knowledge was clearly strongest for the living generations (4th to 8th) and weakest for the 19th century. What it proves is the compiler's understanding of who descends from whom. What it suggests, strongly, is the overall shape of the family and its geography. What it cannot establish is any date, place of birth, or the identity of the people before Fernando.

People recorded per generation

Blood descendants (blue) and spouses (grey) by generation from Fernando (G1). Estimated birth periods are given under

3. How the tree was decoded

1. Generation = font colour. The legend states black = 1st, dark red = 2nd, green = 3rd, blue = 4th, purple = 5th, orange = 6th, dark blue = 7th, red = 8th, light green = 9th generation. The text labels ("4G" etc.) in column F disagree with the colour on 70 rows; the colour was treated as primary because it is applied to every row, while labels are sparse and were visibly copied by hand.
2. Spouse or child? A row is read as a spouse when it is indented deeper than the person above it and has the same colour (or a "#"/"2nd wife" marker). A row one colour deeper is a child.

The same colour at normal indent is a sibling.

3. Naming-convention check. In Philippine usage since the American period the middle name (or initial) is the mother's maiden surname. For every child the middle name was compared with the proposed mother's surname: 1094 links pass, 36 fail, and the rest cannot be tested (no middle name, or a single-name spouse). A failure usually means the compiler listed a person under a sibling instead of under the parents; 133 such rows were moved, each with its reason recorded in `overrides.csv`, and the branch sheets (S2) were checked for agreement in every case.
4. Additional partners. The rows "#2 Faustina Ynot" and "#3 Basilia" after Marcos's descendants, and "# Sarip Arabia Omar" after Cosmiano's, are read as later partners of Marcos and Cosmiano respectively, because their children are coloured 3rd generation and because the compiler's own branch sheets (Sheet5, Sheet8) put them inside those branches. An alternative reading, that they were later wives of Fernando himself, cannot be excluded but is less consistent with the colours.
5. Verification pass. After the registers were built, an automatic check confirmed: every parent-child link is reciprocal and advances the generation by exactly one; every spouse pair is at the same generation; there are no cycles; every one of the 1,794 name rows is accounted for (8 duplicates dropped); and all 977 names that could be matched between the branch sheets and the master sheet fall inside the branch the compiler assigned them to. Two anomalies were found and fixed (three of Rosalia A. Muñasque's children mis-read as spouses; "Lourdes Salili" entered as the wife of two men, logged). Dated statements were then fact-checked by a second research pass (§6).
6. Confidence labels. Moderate = the spreadsheet's placement is internally consistent and the naming check passes or is untestable. Low = a naming-check failure, a colour or indent anomaly, a conflict between the two sheets, or a header-only entry. High is reserved for facts with two independent outside sources (only Benhur Salimbangon's dates qualify). Nothing in the first three generations rises above moderate.

4. The reconstructed lineage

4.1 Generation 0–1: the origin at Opon

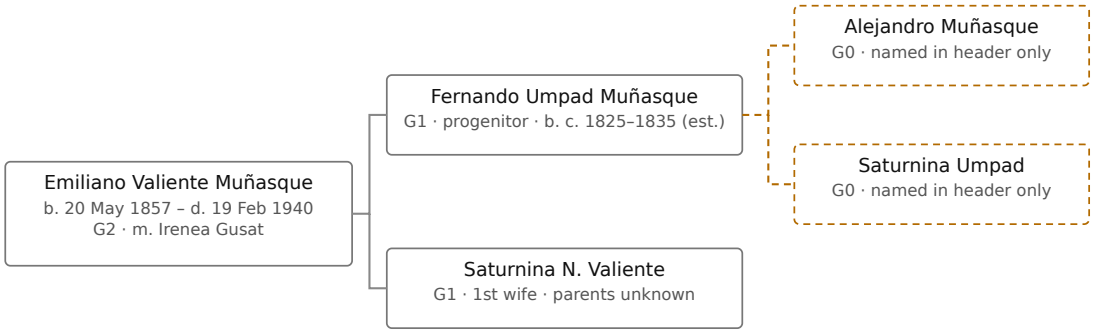

Alejandro Muñasque and Saturnina Umpad (G0) are named once, in the header of the master sheet, as the parents of Fernando. Umpad (also spelled Ompad) is one of the most common surnames of Lapu-Lapu City today, which fits an Opon origin. No dates, no other children. Low confidence until a baptism or marriage record for Fernando is found.

Fernando Umpad Muñasque (G1) married Saturnina N. Valiente. Because their son Emiliano was born in 1857, Fernando was probably born about 1825–1835 and married about 1853–1856: the earliest census measure of Philippine marriage age (1903) puts women at about 21 and men a few years older (S45), so a father in 1857 was most likely 22–30; an 1820 birth is possible if Emiliano was not his first child. Nothing else is known. The surname Muñasque is rare (about 1,050 bearers, mostly in Central Visayas and Mindanao, per Forebears) and is not a known Spanish word; the family story (S3) that it was made from the names Mukilan, Anañas and Roque has no documentary trace. The second research round opened an open transcription of the 1849 Catálogo alfabético de apellidos (S53): the exact spelling Muñasque is not in it, but page 87 of the reprint, among the Moñ- names, has an entry read by three of six readings as "moñasque" (the others "monasque", "moliasque"), between "monasca" and "moñascas". If the page image confirms Moñasque, the family name is very probably a catalogue surname taken in 1850 and later written with a u, which is a common Visayan o/u interchange. Umpad, Ynot, Pino and Valiente are catalogue names too; Cosip, Gusat, Salimbangon and Patalinghug are not, which marks them as older indigenous Mactan names.

This is a lead, not a proof: the reading is marked "best effort" by the transcriber and must be checked on the scan (Google Books copy, p. 87; Issuu copy, p. 121).

Direct ancestral pedigree (all generations known)

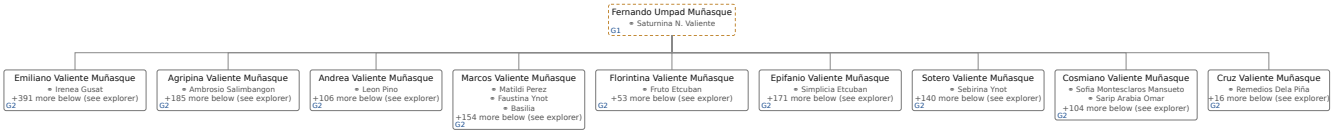

Earliest named ancestors: Alejandro Muñasque and Saturnina Umpad. No dates survive for them.
Dashed box = low confidence (named in the sheet header only).

Fernando's siblings, if any, are unknown. Saturnina Valiente's middle initial "N." is the only clue to her mother's surname.
Sources: S1 (sheet FERNANDO rows 1–5). The estimated birth of Fernando assumes a first child born 1857 (see §4.1).

Master family tree, overview: Fernando Umpad Muñasque and his nine children

Each box shows a child of Fernando & Saturnina Valiente (G2) with spouse(s); the count is the number of recorded descendants in that branch. Full depth is in the branch charts and the explorer.

4.2 Generation 2: the nine Valiente Muñasque children

Child	Spouse(s)	Recorded children	Recorded descendants	Where the branch went (S2)	Notable
Emiliano Valiente Muñasque	Irenea Gusat	6	391	Lanao,Norte (15), Opon,Cebu (10), Polomolok,S. Cotabato (6), Manila (5)	Emiliano Valiente Muñasque; Atty. Marnito B. Cosip; Engr. Marlon B. Cosip; Rowel E. Muñasque; Ryan M. Encarnacion; Dr. Quintin Muñasque Salimbangon Jr.

Epifanio Valiente Muñasque	Simplicia Etcuban	9	171	not stated	Dr. Ricardo C. Muñasque Jr.

Sotero Valiente Muñasque	Sebirina Ynot	5	140	not stated	Atty. Benjamin N. Muñasque; Gabriel D. Muñasque; Josephina N. Muñasque (nun); Rev.Fr. Rosalio N. Muñasque; Sulpicio Ynot Muñasque
Cosmiano Valiente Muñasque	Sofia Montesclaros Mansueto, Sarip Arabia Omar	3	104	not stated	Cosmiano Valiente Muñasque
Cruz Valiente Muñasque	Remedios Dela Piña	2	16	not stated	Elmo D. Muñasque

Estimated birth years for this generation: 1857 (Emiliano) to about 1880. The family states that siblings are listed eldest to youngest throughout the sheet (confirmed 28 Oct 2026); Emiliano, the only dated child (b. 1857), is indeed listed first. The order is kept everywhere in this report and marked as the family's statement where no dates exist.

4.3 Branch summaries

Emiliano Valiente Muñasque (1857–1940) and Irenea Gusat. The largest branch (391 recorded descendants). Six children: Leona (m. Juan Dumo), Godofreda (m. Blas Cosip), Asisclo (m. Felicitas Gonzales), Diosdado (m. Maxima Lucero), Francisco (m. Cesaria Ancajas) and Sergia (m. Quintin Salimbangon Sr.). Godofreda's Cosip children and grandchildren are the Opon core of the sheet (Patalinghug, Lara, Rivera, Zambra, Dueñas lines; residences Opon, Glan, Koronadal, Polomolok, General Santos). Asisclo's children settled in Lanao del Norte, Polomolok and Agusan del Sur; one daughter lives in Germany. Sergia's Salimbangon children include Dr. Quintin Muñasque Salimbangon Jr. The compiler had placed Czar, Ruth and Dr. Quintin Jr. under their sister Thelma; their middle name "Muñasque" shows they are Sergia's children, and Sheet2 agrees. Confidence: moderate for the structure; the Gusat surname is itself rare in Philippine data (Forebears), so Irenea's family remains a lead.

Agripina Valiente Muñasque and Ambrosio Salimbangon. Ten children: Sabiana (m. Ciriaco Go), Teodoro (m. Petronila Almazon), Teodulfo (m. Felipa Gelig), Felix (m. Estelita Esorio), Martin (m. Milagros Lago), Vecing (m. 1 Julio Tumulak, 2 Vicente Mejares), Pulguera (m. Sulficio Basmayor), Felicisimo (m. Pascuala Yap), Rosita (m. Marciano Mondigo) and Antonio (m. Lucia Ikong). 185 recorded descendants. Martin's family lived in Curva, Medellin, in northern Cebu, where Martin was a schoolteacher and barangay captain; his son Benhur became Congressman for Cebu's 4th District (2007–2019) and was buried at Mactan Island Memorial Garden, Lapu-Lapu, a cemetery run by his nephew. His brother Edwin was elected mayor of Medellin in 2025. Outside sources confirm the Martin–Milagros–Benhur chain but say nothing about Agripina or Ambrosio, so the link from Martin back to Opon still rests on the spreadsheet alone. The compiler's "Cong. Benhur" entry gives "# Janice Zamora" as a second partner; that is Janice Zamora Salimbangon, his widow and successor in Congress. Confidence: moderate; the Martin–Benhur link moderate-to-high.

Andrea Valiente Muñasque and Leon Pino. Seven children (Juan, Demetrio "Etiok", Leonardo, Restituto, Sergio and others), 106 recorded descendants, residence not stated in the sheets. Sergio Muñasque Pino had two partners (Benavintora Etcuban; "# 2 Gregoria Arnoco"), which the sheet marks explicitly. Leonardo, Restituto and Sergio were listed by the compiler under Demetrio; their middle name "Muñasque" and surname Pino identify them as Andrea's children, and Sheet4 lists them at the top level. Confidence: moderate.

Marcos Valiente Muñasque with Matilde ("Matildi") Perez, and later partners Faustina Ynot and Basilia. By Matilde: Purification (m. Renato Espinosa), Coronacion (m. Jesus Cabahug), Palexina (m. Antonio Serra Ty) and Col. Coronado "Stim" Perez Muñasque (m. Narcessa Bondoc Vivera; later Linda Jimenez). By Faustina Ynot: Leonarda (m. Tiburcio Booc), Gregoria (m. Steve Mendoza), Fernando Y. (m. Candida Sajonia). By Basilia: Antonio (m. Gavina Booc), Timotea (m. Alipio Bontilao), Gavino. 154 recorded descendants. This block of the sheet is the most inconsistently coloured, so the text labels and the naming convention were used instead; Palexina and Coronado, whose middle name is Perez, are placed one generation higher than the compiler's label. The Cabahug and Ty lines look urban (Cebu/Manila professional families; one Ty married a Murakami) but no residences are given. No outside record of Col. Coronado Muñasque was found. Confidence: moderate for Matilde's line; moderate for the later partners being Marcos's rather than Fernando's.

Florintina Valiente Muñasque and Fruto Etcuban. Five children: Benvienido (m. Dolores Tabernero), Maximo, Federica (m. Pedro Mendoza), Adelfa and Leoncio (m. Desederia Booc). 53 recorded descendants. Adelfa and Leoncio are entered twice in the master sheet (once as Federica's children, once correctly as Florintina's); the duplicate was dropped. Leoncio's grandchildren with the initial S. (Sumarago) were re-attached to Alfredo B. Etcuban Sr. and Rosenda Salimbangon Sumarago. Residences not stated. Confidence: moderate.

Epifanio Valiente Muñasque and Simplicia Etcuban. Nine children: Felixberto (m. Avelina Misa), Eliezar (m. Patrocinia Cortes), Teresita (m. Rolando Padua), Dominador "Tting" (m. Clarisa De Lima), Catalina (m. Felicisimo Gonzales), Ricardo (m. Basilia Cabusas), Cresencia (m. Domingo Cabarlo), Presentacion and Juanita. 171 recorded descendants. Catalina's Gonzales family is large (Pamintuan, Malabago, Duhaylungsod, Largo, Ordista, Tumaquin, Formentera lines). Ricardo's son is Dr. Ricardo C. Muñasque Jr. (m. Luz Olavides). Eliezar, Teresita and Dominador carry the initial E. (Etcuban) and are therefore Epifanio's children, not Felixberto's as the compiler placed them. Sheet7 and the master sheet disagree on whether "Ethea/Eihea Paul(a)" and "Edward Pierre" belong to Eliezar or to his grandson Erwin Paul; flagged. Residences not stated. Confidence: moderate.

Sotero Valiente Muñasque and Sebirina Ynot. Five children: Basilio (m. Rosalia V. Nuñeza), Hilarion (m. Eustoquia Micayabas), Sulpicio (m. Arcadia N. Acaso), Narcisa (m. Monroyo) and Felisa. 140 recorded descendants. Basilio's children include Atty. Benjamin N. Muñasque (Clerk of Court, CFI Cotabato, 1970s), Rev. Fr. Rosalio N. Muñasque (Diocese of Marbel, d. 2003) and Josephina, a nun. Sulpicio is very probably the evangelist Sulpicio Y. Muñasque who moved from Lala, Lanao del Norte, to General Santos in 1939; his son Gideon A. Muñasque Sr. (children Easter Glory and Gideon Jr., and seven more by a second wife, Elsa Guarde Paredes) heads the next generation. This is the branch with the strongest outside corroboration and the clearest Mindanao story (Lanao del Norte → South Cotabato). Confidence: moderate; identities of the three named men moderate.

Cosmiano Valiente Muñasque with Sofia Montesclaros Mansueto, and a second family with Sarip Arabia Omar. By Sofia: Marcelina (m. Walter Cebedo Sr.) and Fernando M. Muñasque Sr. (m. Cecilia Lim Fernan), whose line runs Fernando Jr., Fernando III, Fernando IV. By Sarip Arabia Omar: Hadja Amina Omar Muñasque, who married Toncio Maulana Tambingag; their nine children and the Pangolima, Hadjan, Hassan, Moraga and Marohombsar in-laws are a Muslim (Maranao/Maguindanao-named) family. The Tambingag surname clusters today in General Santos City and Sarangani (Forebears; a 2025 Maasim council candidate). 104 recorded descendants. Children of Malapat Tambingag and Tarhata Marohombsar carry the initial T. for the mother's given name, a Moro usage, which the naming check correctly flags but which is not an error. Two US residents named Nigel Fernando and Erwin Fernando Muñasque were found online; they may belong to this "Fernando" line but nothing links them. Confidence: moderate for Sofia's line; low-to-moderate for the Omar/Tambingag family.

Cruz Valiente Muñasque and Remedios Dela Piña. Two children, Elmo and Mariano (m. Burgos); 16 recorded descendants, including a Matthews family (Mariano's grandson Frank Luis Fernando married Patricia Matthews). Elmo is probably the Cebu building contractor ("Galan and Muñasque") whose 1966–67 contract with Tropical Commercial Co. was litigated to the Supreme Court in 1985. Confidence: moderate.

5. Ancestor and key-person profiles

Fernando Umpad Muñasque (G1, progenitor). Son of Alejandro Muñasque and Saturnina Umpad; husband of Saturnina N. Valiente; father of nine. Born about 1820–1835 (estimate from Emiliano's 1857 birth); of Opon, Cebu. No image, record or date exists for him. The Umpad/Ompad surname is a Mactan Island name, which supports the Opon origin. Sources: S1, S33.

Saturnina N. Valiente (G1). Wife of Fernando; mother of the nine "Valiente Muñasque" children. Her middle initial N. is the only clue to her own mother's surname. Valiente is a Spanish surname that also appears in the 1849 Claveria catalogue tradition, but her family is undocumented. Sources: S1.

Emiliano Valiente Muñasque (G2), 20 May 1857 – 19 Feb 1940. The only dated person. Husband of Irenea Gusat; father of six; head of the largest branch. Born under Spanish rule and died a year before the Pacific War, aged 83. His death in February 1940 should be in the Opon civil register (Act 3753 was in force) and the Opon parish burial book; neither has been searched yet. Sources: S1.

Agripina Valiente Muñasque and Ambrosio Salimbangon (G2). Parents of the Salimbangon branch (ten children). The branch later appears in Curva, Medellin, 120 km north of Opon, where the son Martin was a teacher and village head; how and when the family moved is unknown. The Cebuano word salimbangon is a plant name (Wiktionary). Sources: S1, S14, S15.

Martin Salimbangon and Milagros Lago (G3). Schoolteacher and barangay captain of Curva, Medellin (S14, S15); Milagros born 8 September 1915 or 1916, still living in 2013 at 98 (S16, S17). Parents of Aida, Ofelia/Ophelia (m. Jose Cue; d. before 2006), Benhur, Cesar, Mariquita (m. Carlos Yeung), Danilo, Edwin (Mayor of Medellin 2025) and Freddie per the spreadsheet; the press counts seven children.

Congressman Benhur Lago Salimbangon (G4), 3 Jun 1945 – 24 Dec 2020. Provincial Board Member 1992–1998; Representative for Cebu's 4th District, elected 2007 (annulled on protest), re-elected 2010, serving to 2019; married Mariter Trocino and later Janice Zamora, who succeeded him in Congress; seven children including Francis Edward (Mayor of Tabogon). Died of lung cancer; buried at Mactan Island Memorial Garden, Lapu-Lapu City. The only person in the tree whose dates are confirmed by two independent outside sources. Sources: S10–S13.

Sulpicio Ynot Muñasque (G3). Son of Sotero and Sebirina Ynot. Very probably the evangelist "Sulpicio Y. Munasque" of the United Evangelical Church who came from Lala, Lanao del Norte, to Dadiangas on 7 March 1939, eight days after the first NLSA settlers landed, and who with his wife petitioned Gen. Paulino Santos for a church lot in 1941; a street in Dadiangas North bears his name. Married Arcadia N. Acaso; father of Gideon A. Muñasque Sr. Sources: S1, S29, S30, S40.

Rev. Fr. Rosalio N. Muñasque (G4), d. 2 Dec 2003. Son of Basilio Ynot Muñasque and Rosalia V. Nuñeza. Diocesan priest of Marbel (Koronadal, South Cotabato): rector of the Our Lady of Perpetual Help Seminary about 1975, parish priest of Banga 1975–1978, spiritual director of Notre Dame of Kiamba. Sources: S21–S24.

Atty. Benjamin N. Muñasque (G4). Brother of Fr. Rosalio; married Erlinda Yu. A Supreme Court decision of 31 October 1974 (A.M. No. P-145) names "Benjamin N. Muñasque, Clerk of Court of the Court of First Instance in Cotabato City" and records his complaint of 2 February 1972 against a stenographer; the rare surname, the initial N. and the title make the identification probable. Sources: S1, S25.

Col. Coronado "Stim" Perez Muñasque (G3). Son of Marcos and Matilde Perez; married Narcessa Bondoc Vivera and later Linda Jimenez; grandfather of Stimson Muñasque. The title Col. comes from Sheet5 only; no military record was found. Sources: S1, S2.

Hadja Amina Omar Muñasque (G3). Daughter of Cosmiano by Sarip Arabia Omar; wife of Toncio Maulana Tambingag; mother of Bai, Pompie, Udtog, Hadja Alijah Patring, Eduardo, Rachima, Dayang, Solaiman and Malapat. The honorific Hadja indicates she made the pilgrimage to Mecca. The family is the one Muslim branch of the tree; its location (probably the General Santos–Sarangani coast) is inferred from the surname's distribution, not from the sheet. Sources: S1, S2.

Atty. Marnito B. Cosep / Cosip (G5). Son of Hermenio Muñasque Cosip and Marina Berami; Provincial Legal Officer of South Cotabato, Koronadal City. Sources: S2, S27, S28.

6. Independent research: what was searched and what was found

Searches were run in English and, for some topics, Cebuano and Hiligaynon. In this session almost every record website (FamilySearch, Wikipedia, Forebears, archive.org, Geni, the Philippine news sites, the Supreme Court e-library mirrors) could not be opened, so every finding below rests on search-engine result text and must be re-checked by opening the cited page. Full agent reports are in `research/`.

Found (with source IDs from the bibliography):

- Benhur Lago Salimbangon: born 3 June 1945 (Medellin, Cebu, per Geni and news; Cebu City per Simple English Wikipedia); Cebu Provincial Board 1992–1998; Representative, Cebu 4th District, elected 2007 (a result later annulled on protest), re-elected 2010 and serving to 2019; died 24 December 2020 of lung cancer; buried 30 December 2020 at Mactan Island Memorial Garden, Lapu-Lapu City (S10–S13). Geni (unsourced) and press profiles of his sister name his parents as Martin Salimbangon and Milagros Lago (S11, S15). This matches the spreadsheet row by row.
- Martin Salimbangon: schoolteacher and barangay captain ("Kapitan") of Curva, Medellin, northern Cebu; a TESDA centre and a high school there are named for him (S14, S15).
- Milagros Lago Salimbangon: "turned 90" on 8 September 2006 (S16) but "turns 98" in October 2013 (S17), so born 1915 or 1916; seven children reported in 2006 (the spreadsheet lists eight), and the 2013 column names five of them with their spouses, Benhur & Janice, Cesar & Fely, Mariquita & Carlos Yeung, Danila & Ulpa, Edwin & Edna (S46); daughter Ophelia Cue already deceased by 2006 (S16).
- Mariquita Salimbangon Yeung (spreadsheet: "Teung"): born about 3 March 1952; University of San Carlos graduate; husband Carlos Yeung of Hong Kong (S15, S18).
- Edwin L. Salimbangon: barangay captain of Curva 2018; elected Mayor of Medellin May 2025 (S19, S20).
- Fr. Rosalio N. Muñasque: priest of the Diocese of Marbel; seminary rector about 1975; parish priest of Banga 1975–1978; spiritual director at Notre Dame of Kiamba; died 2 December 2003 (S21–S24). Identity rests on the rare name and the title; his parents are not named online.

- Benjamin N. Muñasque: Clerk of Court of the Court of First Instance in Cotabato City, named as respondent in a Supreme Court decision of 31 October 1974 (A.M. No. P-145) that also records his own complaint of 2 February 1972 (S25). A 1979 case naming him (S26) surfaced in the first pass but could not be re-found. Same middle initial N. (= Nuñeza) and same title as the spreadsheet.
- Marnito B. Cosep (spreadsheet: Cosip): Provincial Legal Officer of South Cotabato, Koronadal (S27, S28). Residence Koronadal in S2 agrees.
- Sulpicio Y. Muñasque: evangelist of the United Evangelical Church, arrived in Dadiangas (General Santos) from Lala, Lanao del Norte, 7 March 1939; asked Gen. Paulino Santos for a church site in 1941; Sulpicio Muñasque Street in Dadiangas North (S29, S30). The Y. matches Ynot, his mother's surname in the spreadsheet.
- Elmo Muñasque of "Galan and Muñasque", Cebu building contractors, whose 1966–67 contract with Tropical Commercial Co. went to the Supreme Court in 1985 (S31). Probably the spreadsheet's Elmo D. Muñasque (son of Cruz), name match only.
- Gabriel Munasque, General Manager of South Cotabato Integrated Port Services (Makar port, General Santos), petitioner in a 2023 Supreme Court case (S54): probably the spreadsheet's Gabriel "Bob" D. Muñasque (son of Zacarias N. Muñasque and Remedios Dequiña), name and place match only.
- Martin Salimbangon's middle initial is M. (the school is "Martin M. Salimbangon National High School"); Curva became a barrio in 1961; Mariquita married Carlos Yeung in 1978 (S55, S15).
- A Ruel/Rowil Munasque, UCCP youth leader in Zamboanga del Sur (aged 33 in 2007), appears in 2007 Amnesty International and AHRC appeals (S56); he may be the spreadsheet's Rowel E. Muñasque of the Asisclo line, whose relatives lived in Lanao del Norte, Plaridel and Pagadian. Unproven.
- The 1849 Catálogo transcription (S53): see §4.1 for the probable "Moñasque" entry.
- Surname distribution: Muñasque about 1,050 bearers, 38% Central Visayas, 27% Soccsksargen, 16% Northern Mindanao (S32); Umpad/Ompad and Patalinghug among the most common surnames of Lapu-Lapu City (S33).

Third round: the record sites opened directly (same day, later). A sandbox with open internet was used to read the pages themselves rather than search snippets. New: Marcos Valiente Muñasque, Municipal President of Medellin 1923–1933 (S57); Cosmiano Valiente Muñasque, councilor of Kolambugan, Lanao, appointed 12 July 1946, read on the Official Gazette's archived page, with a January 1946 snippet naming him acting councilor from 14 December 1945 (S58); Col. Coronado P. Muñasque as CAP director (2005), Makati creditor (2002–2008) and builder of a Medellin beach resort (S59, S60); Atty. Benjamin N. Muñasque's clerkship documented 1972–1978 in three decisions (S61); the Elmo Muñasque contract date, 20 December 1966, read in the decision itself (S31). Find a Grave lists three Munasque burials, two of them in the Lapu-Lapu Municipal Cemetery, none yet matched (S62); a National Library director and a California bankruptcy debtor of the surname are unplaced namesakes (S63). Details and the list of sites that could not be opened are in `research/agent8_direct_fetch.md`.

Second round and fact-check (same day). A second research round and a separate fact-check of 17 dated statements were run. Of the 17: 8 verified, 6 partly verified (wording or a secondary detail corrected), 3 not re-found (Fr. Rosalio Muñasque's diocesan pages, the Sulpicio Muñasque church history, and the Forebears figures, all blocked hosts). Corrections made as a result: Glan was founded in 1914, not surveyed in 1912; the Supreme Court decision that names Benjamin N. Muñasque as Clerk of Court is A.M. No. P-145 of 31 October 1974 (P-227 was his own complaint); the 1966 contract date for Elmo Muñasque is not confirmed; "US control restored by 1901" is more exactly "American military rule reimposed over Cebu on 17 July 1901"; Fernando's estimated birth is narrowed to about 1825–1835; the Milagros Lago birth-year conflict (1915/1916) stands. Full table: `research/agent6_factcheck.md`.

Not found (searched, no result): any record of Alejandro, Fernando, Emiliano, Saturnina Umpad, Saturnina Valiente, Irenea Gusat, or any of the nine 2nd-generation children; Ambrosio Salimbangon; Dr. Quintin Salimbangon Jr.; Dr. Ricardo C. Muñasque Jr.; Engr. Marlon Cosip; any member of the Tambingag branch; Amador Piligro; the surname in the Claveria catalogue; any Muñasque entry on FamilySearch public pages, BillionGraves, WikiTree or MyHeritage (Find a Grave: three unmatched burials, S62). Absence from a search engine is weak evidence: FamilySearch's indexes are not crawlable.

7. Geography and migration

The branch sheets (S2) give a residence for 72 people, almost all in generations 4–6, so the map shows where the family was living around 2014–2020, not where each person was born. Counts by place: lanao 17, opon 11, polomolok 8, gensan 6, manila 5, glan 4, koronadal 2, stonino 2, rosario 2, upi 1, trento 1, midsayap 1, cebu 1, cavite 1, lebak 1, surallah 1, tacurong 1, bukidnon 1, plaridel 1, pagadian 1; abroad: Usa 3, Germany 1, Australia 1. Three moves are now dated and documented: Marcos Valiente Muñasque was Municipal President of Medellin, northern Cebu, from 1923 to 1933 (S57); his brother Cosmiano was a councilor of Kolambugan, Lanao, in 1945–1946 (S58); and Sulpicio Y. Muñasque went from Lala, Lanao del Norte, to Dadiangas (General Santos) on 7 March 1939 (S29). The Medellin link is older than thought: Agripina's Salimbangon family at Curva and Coronado Muñasque's 2002 resort at Kawit (S60) are in the same town, so part of the family had settled in northern Cebu by the 1920s. The Opon origin of every other branch is the compiler's statement (S3) supported by the Mactan surnames (Umpad, Patalinghug, Booc, Ynot, Etcuban) in the early generations. The Martin Salimbangon family's home in Curva, Medellin (northern Cebu) comes from the press (S14–S16). All other arrows on the map are therefore hypothetical routes between a documented origin and a documented later residence.

Historical context that explains the pattern: Opon was a poor-soil fishing and boat-building town (population 14,851 in 1903, 33,426 in 1939; S37, S38). From 1913 the colonial government planted agricultural colonies in Cotabato: Pikit was founded on 17 June 1913 by about 120 Cebuano colonists, and Glan ("Colony No. 9") in 1914 by Cebu pioneers (S39). The National Land Settlement Administration (Commonwealth Act 441, 1939) opened the Koronadal and Allah valleys; its first settlers landed at Sarangani Bay on 27 February 1939 under Gen. Paulino Santos, who had been running the project since January (S40), eight days before Sulpicio Muñasque arrived there (S29). Post-war programmes (LASEDECO 1950, NARRA 1954, EDCOR in Kapatagan, Lanao) kept the flow going. The family's Lanao del Norte, Polomolok, Koronadal, General Santos and Glan clusters sit exactly on these settlement fronts.

Opon, Mactan Island, around 1900. A fishing and boat-building town of coral shore, nipa houses on stilts and outrigger bancas, as it would have looked while Fernando Umpad Muñasque (1857–1940) and Saturnina Valiente were raising their family. Drawn from the written descriptions and 1900s photographs listed in §7.1.
AI-generated illustrative reconstruction, not a photograph.

The old church of Opon, 1930s. Nuestra Señora Virgen de la Regla seen from the pier where the Cebu ferry landed. The 1744 coral-stone church was pulled down and rebuilt in 1960, so this is the church that generations 2–4 of the family knew.
AI-generated illustrative reconstruction, not a photograph.

Sarangani Bay, February–March 1939. Settlers of the National Land Settlement Administration landing at Dadiangas (now General Santos). The first group arrived on 27 February 1939 (S40); Sulpicio Y. Muñasque's recorded arrival from Lala, Lanao del Norte, followed on 7 March 1939 (S29).

A homestead on Panguil Bay, Lanao del Norte, 1930s. The Lanao del Norte shore is where the largest cluster of the family in the branch sheets (17 people) lives today, and where Sulpicio Y. Muñasque was based at Lala before he left for Dadiangas in 1939.
AI-generated illustrative reconstruction, not a photograph.

Koronadal Valley settlement, 1940s. New settler villages under Mount Matutum. Polomolok, Koronadal, Tupi and Surallah, where several branches were recorded living in 2014–2020, grew out of this government land-settlement programme.
AI-generated illustrative reconstruction, not a photograph.

> About these pictures. The six illustrations were generated in October 2026 with the GPT Image model through Higgsfield, from prompts written from the sources in §7.1 (Opon and Mindanao photographs of 1900–1945, the 1939 settlement record, the branch-sheet residences). They are artists' impressions of places and periods, not photographs, and no real family member is shown. Treat them as scene-setting, never as evidence.

7.1 Historical images and maps: what exists and how to get it

A picture-research pass found no photograph of any family member born before 1945 online, and no image of Fr. Rosalio Muñasque, Atty. Benjamin Muñasque, Sulpicio Muñasque or Atty. Marnito Cosep. Nothing could be downloaded in this session, so the report page carries no photographs; the links below are where to obtain them (full list with licence notes in `research/agent5_images.md`).

- Opon, 1914–1945. Ortigas Foundation Library: the Opon pier and old Virgen de la Regla church (1930s), the Opon ferry landing (Harry Hawkins Jr., 1930s), the Magellan monument (1915–19), the Opon church postcard noting the 1744 church was bulldozed in 1960 and rebuilt (S49). Filipinas Heritage Library: Osmeña Gate, Opon (1914); Spanish gate at Opon (Bureau of Public Works, c. 1915); Lapu-Lapu and Magellan monuments (S50). USC Libraries / Calisphere lantern slides: "Barata with sail, Opon, 1933"; carabao ploughing at Opon, 1933; Magellan Memorial School, Opon, 1933; and, for the Salimbangon branch, "Evangelical chapel, Curva, Medellin, 1932" and a market scene at Curva, 1932 (S48). Pacific Wrecks: Opon airfield, 1945 (US Navy photograph, public domain).
- Mindanao frontier. Kolambugan, Lanao del Norte, 1919–21 (Ortigas, Kincaid album); "Arrival of Vice President Osmeña ... Gen. Santos", 1938, and Main Street, Cotabato, 1902 (Filipinas Heritage Library). No photograph of the 1939–50 Koronadal, Dadiangas, Glan or Polomolok settlements was found online.
- Maps (public domain). Atlas de Filipinas (1899/1900), plate 22 "Cebu" with the inset "Isla de Mactan", and plates 27–28 for Mindanao, on Wikimedia Commons and the David Rumsey collection (S51); US War Department map of 1900 at the Library of Congress; US Coast and Geodetic Survey chart "Cebu and Mactan" (NOAA historical charts).
- Illustrations. Six labelled reconstructions were generated for this report in October 2026 (GPT Image model via Higgsfield, prompts written from the sources above): Opon c. 1900, the old Opon church from the pier in the 1930s, the 1939 landing at Sarangani Bay, a Panguil Bay homestead, a 1940s Koronadal Valley settlement, and the header artwork. They are shown in §7 and on the cover of the printed edition, each marked "AI-generated illustrative reconstruction, not a photograph". They depict places and periods, not people, and carry no evidential weight. Files: `docs/images/01–06.jpg`.

Documented places, plotted to scale (latitude/longitude)

Dot size = number of people the branch sheets place there (c. 2014–2020). Coastlines are not drawn: no map data could be fetched in this se

Dashed = descendants recorded as living there; the move itself is undated and the Opon origin is assumed.
Solid orange = dated, documented move. Orange dot = place known only from press reports.

Chronological timeline: family events (orange) and historical context (blue)

- 1849 Claveria surname decree (21 Nov 1849); fixed surnames in records from 1850 [S41; S42]
- 1857 Emiliano Valiente Muñasque born, 20 May [S1]
- 1901 American military rule reimposed over Cebu, 17 Jul; Opon's first municipal election 1905 [S38]
- 1903 First US census: Opon 14,851 people [S37]
- 1913 Cebuano colonists found Pikit, Cotabato (17 Jun); Glan (Colony No. 9) follows in 1914 [S39]
- 1915 Milagros Lago (later Salimbangon) born, 8 Sep 1915/16 [S16; S17]
- 1918 Census: Opon 20,988 [S37]
- 1930 Civil Registry Law (Act 3753) creates municipal civil registers [S42]
- 1939 First NLSA settlers land at Sarangani Bay 27 Feb; Sulpicio Y. Muñasque reaches Dadiangas
- 1940 Emiliano Valiente Muñasque dies, 19 Feb, aged 83 [S1]
- 1941 Japanese air raids on Opon oil tanks (Dec, per Wikipedia); WWII [S38]
- 1945 Benhur Lago Salimbangon born, 3 Jun (Medellin, Cebu) [S10; S11]
- 1961 Opon becomes Lapu-Lapu City (RA 3134) [S38]
- 1967 Galan & Muñasque (Elmo) contract with Tropical Commercial Co., Cebu, later litigated (probable identity) [S31]
- 1972 Benjamin N. Muñasque, Clerk of Court, CFI Cotabato City, files a complaint (2 Feb); SC decision 1974 (probable identity) [S25]
- 1973 Mactan–Mandaue Bridge opens, 4 Jul [S43]
- 1975 Fr. Rosalio N. Muñasque rector of Marbel seminary; parish priest of Banga 1975–78 [S21; S22]
- 2003 Fr. Rosalio N. Muñasque dies, 2 Dec [S24]
- 2006 Compiler interviews Amador Piligro (97) at Opon about the surname; Milagros Lago turns 90 [S3; S16]
- 2007 Benhur Salimbangon enters Congress (Cebu 4th District), serves to 2019 [S10]
- 2014 Family spreadsheet created (14 Sep) [S4]
- 2020 Spreadsheet last edited (12 Jun); Benhur Salimbangon dies 24 Dec [S4; S12]

Only the 1857/1940 dates come from the family file; all other dates come from outside sources listed in the bibliography.

Relationship and evidence diagram for the key links

Dashed box/line = family spreadsheet only (S1/S2). Solid = an outside source names the person. Orange line = the outside source states the parent-child link independently.

8. Evidence matrix for the key relationships

Relationship	Evidence	Conflicts	Confidence
Alejandro Muñasque + Saturnina Umpad → Fernando	S1 header line only	none	Low
Fernando + Saturnina Valiente → nine children	S1 (colour, position, "Valiente Muñasque" middle name on all nine)	none	Moderate
Fernando → Emiliano (b. 1857)	S1; the only dates in the file	none	Moderate
Emiliano + Irenea Gusat → six children ("Gusat/G." middle names)	S1, S2	none	Moderate
Agripina + Ambrosio Salimbangon → Martin Salimbangon	S1, S3 (Sheet3)	Salimbangon family of Martin lived in Medellin, not Opon	Moderate
Martin Salimbangon + Milagros Lago → Benhur	S1; S11 (Geni, unsourced); S15 (press profile of sister); S14 (institutions named for Martin in Curva)	seven vs eight children; birthplace Medellin vs Cebu City	Moderate–High
Benhur's dates	S10, S12, S13 (two independent news sources + Wikipedia)	place of death Quezon City vs Cebu City	High
Sotero + Sebirina Ynot → Sulpicio Ynot Muñasque = evangelist Sulpicio Y. Munasque (1939)	S1 + S29/S30	none; identity by rare name + initial	Moderate
Sotero → Basilio Ynot Muñasque + Rosalia Nuñeza → Fr. Rosalio N., Atty. Benjamin N.	S1 + S21–S25	none; identity by name + title; Fr. Rosalio's sources come from one research pass and were not re-found in the fact-check	Moderate
Marcos → second and third partners Faustina Ynot, Basilia	S1 colours, S2 (Sheet5 placement)	could instead be wives of Fernando	Moderate
Cosmiano → second family with Sarip Arabia Omar (Tambingag line)	S1, S2 (Sheet8)	no outside trace	Low–Moderate
Hermenio Muñasque Cosip → Atty. Marnito B. Cosep	S1, S2 (Koronadal) + S27/S28	spelling Cosip/Cosep	Moderate

9. Discrepancy log (summary)

The full log is `registers/discrepancies.csv` (23 topic-level entries and 116 row-level flags). The main points:

- generation-labels — Text labels "nG" in column F disagree with the font colour on 70 rows (e.g. Hermenio Muñasque Cosip labelled 5G but coloured 4G). The colour legend in J403–J413 was treated as primary; labels were used only where colours were internally inconsistent (Marcos branch rows 949–1044). Reading: colour used; label conflicts listed in discrepancies_auto.csv (resolved (method)).
- two-colour-legends — Sheet FERNANDO legend: black=1st, dark red=2nd, green=3rd, blue=4th, purple=5th, orange=6th, dark blue=7th, red 2=8th, light green=9th. Sheet7 legend differs (blue=1st, red=2nd, green=3rd, black=4th, violet=5th, yellow=6th, orange=7th). Sheet7 is an earlier draft. Reading: master sheet legend applied (resolved).

- additional-wives — Rows "#2..Faustina Ynot" and "#3..Basilia" (after Marcos Valiente Muñasque's descendants) and "#..Sarip Arabia Omar" (after Cosmiano's descendants) are coloured in a special red. They are read as 2nd/3rd partners of Marcos and 2nd partner of Cosmiano because their children are coloured 3rd generation and because Sheet5/Sheet8 place them inside those branches. An alternative reading, that they were later wives of the progenitor Fernando, would make their children 2nd generation; the colours argue against it. Reading: Marcos (2nd, 3rd) and Cosmiano (2nd) (moderate).
- Marcos-branch-colours — Rows 949–1044 (Marcos branch) are coloured one or two levels too deep and inconsistently; e.g. Purification P. Muñasque is blue (4th) although she is a child of a 2nd-generation person. Text labels and naming convention were used instead; Palexina Perez Muñasque and Col. Coronado Perez Muñasque ("Perez" = mother Matilde Perez) are placed as children of Marcos (3rd generation), one level higher than the compiler's label. Reading: labels + naming convention (moderate).
- siblings-listed-as-children — Several people whose middle name shows their mother's surname were placed by the compiler under a sibling instead of their parents (e.g. Czar, Ruth and Dr. Quintin Jr. Muñasque Salimbangon under Thelma; Wilfredo, Raquel, Sarah and Cezar Franco A. Muñasque under Samuel A.; Leonardo, Restituto and Sergio Muñasque Pino under Demetrio; Eliezar, Teresita and Dominador E. Muñasque under Felixberto). Re-attached to the parents implied by the naming convention; the branch sheets (S2) agree in each case checked. All such moves are listed in overrides.csv with reasons. Reading: naming convention + S2 (moderate).
- Teodulfo-children-initials — Alice/Alicia, Perla, Leonillo/Leonilo and Sonia Salimbangon carry the initial P. in the master sheet but G. (Gelig) in Sheet3. Treated as children of Teodulfo & Felipa Gelig per Sheet3. A second wife beginning with P. cannot be excluded. Reading: Sheet3 reading (low).
- Milagros-children-count — Press (2006) says Milagros Lago Salimbangon had seven children; spreadsheet lists eight (Aida, Ofelia, Benhur, Cesar, Mariquita, Danilo, Edwin, Freddie). Reading: unresolved; press count may exclude a deceased child or the spreadsheet may include a non-child (unresolved).
- Benhur-birthplace — Medellin, Cebu (Geni; Cebu Daily News, Manila Bulletin) vs Cebu City (Simple English Wikipedia). Reading: Medellin better supported (multiple news sources; family lived in Curva, Medellin) (moderate).
- Glan-colony-date — First pass gave Glan (Colony No. 9) as "surveyed c. 1912"; the fact-check found it was founded in 1914 by Cebu pioneers under Tranquilino Ruiz (first settlers 8 Oct 1914). Corrected. Reading: 1914 (resolved).
- Benjamin-case-citation — First pass cited A.M. No. P-227 (30 Sep 1974) as the case naming Benjamin N. Muñasque; the fact-check shows P-227 was his own complaint, dismissed on that date, and that the decision naming him as Clerk of Court is A.M. No. P-145 (31 Oct 1974). The 1979 case (G.R. L-28485) was not re-found. Citations corrected. Reading: A.M. No. P-145 (resolved).
- NLSA-order — The first NLSA settlers landed at Sarangani Bay on 27 Feb 1939, before Commonwealth Act 441 chartered the NLSA on 3 Jun 1939: Gen. Paulino Santos had been appointed its general manager in Jan 1939 and the settlement began administratively. Sulpicio Muñasque arrived on 7 Mar 1939, eight days after the first landing. Reading: both dates stand (resolved).
- Milagros-birth-year — 1916 (90 in Sept 2006) vs 1915 (96 in 2011; 98 in 2013). Reading: unresolved; a civil or church record would settle it (unresolved).
- Yeung-vs-Teung — Spreadsheet "Carlos Teung" vs published "Carlos Yeung" (Hong Kong businessman). Reading: Yeung (published spelling) (high).
- Cosip-vs-Cosep — Spreadsheet uses Cosip (Blas Cosip line) and Cosep (Rivera children); official South Cotabato pages spell Atty. Marnito Cosep. Reading: both spellings recorded as variants (resolved).

- registered-under-mother — Children carrying the mother's surname and the mother's own middle name (e.g. Roberto M. Cosip under Esperanza Muñasque Cosip; Samantha Jean M. Muñasque under Jojo C. Muñasque; Princess Justine S. Muñasque under Elena S. Muñasque; Jona Girl Muñasque and Cyril M. Ochotorena under Rosalia A. Muñasque) follow the Philippine practice of registering a child under the mother's name. Kept as the compiler placed them; flagged low confidence. Reading: kept (low).
- married-surnames — Some women are entered under married surnames (Leonarda Y. Booc, Vivian G. Caballes, Eva Muñasque Jo, Delilah Stevens Carey); their middle initials show the maiden line. Leonarda is shown as Muñasque with Booc recorded as a variant. Reading: noted (moderate).
- Muslim-naming — Children of Malapat Muñasque Tambingag & Tarhata Marohombsar carry "T." (apparently for Tarhata, the mother's given name), a Maranao/Maguindanao usage, not a Hispanic maiden-surname initial. Reading: noted; no change (n/a).
- duplicates — Adelfa and Leoncio Muñasque Etcuban (rows 1232–1234) and Teresita Go with the Grande family (rows 590–593) are entered twice; Rosalinda B. Etcuban twice (1252, 1285). Second copies dropped. Reading: dropped (resolved).
- conflicting-child-placements — Jerimar: "Jerimar Muñasque Booc" (Sheet5, child of Leonarda) vs "Jerimar B. Quirante" (master, child of Fe M. Booc & Oscar Quirante). Ethea/Eihea Paul(a): child of Eliezar & Cortes (Sheet7) vs child of Erwin Paul & Alicia B. Rogan (master). Samuel Salimbangon Go: child of Sabiana (Sheet3) vs "Samuel", spouse of Alicia Salimbangon Go (master). Norman vs Norma Muñasque Salimbangon (Sheet2 vs master). Reading: master sheet (later version) followed; conflicts flagged on the persons (low).
- Lourdes-Salili-twice — "Lourdes Salili" is entered as the wife of Jaime T. Rivera (row 232) and again as the wife of Mabini G. Muñasque (row 352); Sheet2 gives Mabini's wife only as "Lourdes". Probably a copy slip in the master sheet; the two are kept as separate persons. Reading: two separate spouse entries kept; the surname of Mabini's wife is uncertain (low).
- Sulpicio-identity — "Sulpicio Y. Munasque", evangelist, Lala, Lanao del Norte → General Santos 1939 (S29) vs spreadsheet "Sulpicio Ynot Muñasque" (son of Sotero & Sebirina Ynot) with no residence given. Reading: same person probable (rare name, Y. = Ynot, family cluster in Lanao del Norte) (moderate).
- Surname-origin — Two hypotheses: (a) the oral story recorded by the compiler (S3) that Muñasque was formed from the names Mukilan, Anañas and Roque; (b) a Claveria-catalogue origin, now supported by an OCR entry "monasque/moñasque" on page 87 of the 1849 Catálogo (S53). Neither is proven: (b) needs the page image checked and does not say which Opon family took the name; (a) has no documentary trace and does not explain the Spanish-looking ending. Reading: catalogue origin somewhat better supported; verify on scan (unverified hypothesis).
- Opon-origin — The compiler places the family at Opon, Cebu (S3, residence column "OPON, CEBU" in S2). The Salimbangon branch that produced Congressman Benhur lived in Curva, Medellin (northern Cebu). How Agripina Valiente Muñasque's family came to Medellin is undocumented. Reading: noted (unresolved).

10. Research gaps and ranked next steps

Ranked by expected value and feasibility.

1. Opon parish registers, 1840–1940 (highest value). FamilySearch collection 5000324, "Philippines, Central Visayas, Church Records, 1737–2005", holds baptisms, marriages and burials for Cebu parishes, partly indexed, images browsable with a free account; the FamilySearch wiki inventory lists the parish Nuestra Señora de la Virgen de Regla, Lapu-Lapu City (S34, S35). Search surname Muñasque / Munasque / Muñasqui with place Opon, then browse the unindexed images by year. Targets: Emiliano's baptism (May–June 1857) naming

Fernando and Saturnina Valiente and the grandparents; Fernando's marriage to Saturnina (before 1857); Fernando's own baptism (c. 1820–1835) naming Alejandro and Saturnina Umpad; baptisms of the other eight children (c. 1858–1885); Emiliano's burial (February 1940). One hit would settle the first three generations.

2. Emiliano's civil death record, Feb 1940. Request a "Transcription of Facts of Death from the Registry Book" (Civil Registry Form 2A) from the Lapu-Lapu City Local Civil Registry Office; PSA itself holds almost nothing before 1945 (S36). Also check FamilySearch civil-registration collections 2018411 (1902–1945) and 1410394 (local, 1888–1986).
3. 1849 Claveria catalogue. Open the Filipinas Heritage Library scan (biblio/50226) or the 1973 National Archives reprint and check the "Mu-" pages for Muñasque. Presence would mean the surname was assigned in 1850 and the Mukilan–Anañas–Roque story is folk etymology; absence would favour an older indigenous or invented name.
4. Spanish-era padrones / vecindarios. FamilySearch collection 5000268, "Philippines, Neighborhood Census, 1836–1899", extracts parish household lists; a Muñasque household in Opon would give ages and relationships for Fernando's generation.
5. Benhur Salimbangon's own documents. His House of Representatives profile or obituary programme would state parents and birthplace and resolve Medellin vs Cebu City. Ask the family for Milagros Lago's death notice to fix her birth year.
6. Salimbangon move to Medellin. Search the Medellin parish (San Isidro Labrador?) and civil registers for Martin Salimbangon's marriage to Milagros Lago (c. 1935–1945) and for Ambrosio Salimbangon; this would show whether Agripina's family moved north or whether Ambrosio was from Medellin.
7. Diocese of Marbel records for Fr. Rosalio N. Muñasque (ordination file, necrology) and Court of First Instance of Cotabato appointment records for Atty. Benjamin N. Muñasque: both would name parents and birthplace and tie the Sotero line to Opon with a document.
8. UCCP Lagao history (S29) in full and the UCCP/United Evangelical Church archives for Sulpicio Y. Muñasque: his ordination or appointment papers would give his birthplace and parents (expected: Opon; Sotero and Sebirina Ynot).
9. Interview the compiler. The spreadsheet's author (file saved by "MarkhyNet") interviewed Amador Piligro in 2006 and clearly knew the Cosip/Patalinghug families of Opon personally. Ask for the sources of the 1857 and 1940 dates, the meaning of the colour and "#" conventions, and the sex of each person (needed for a correct GEDCOM).
10. Gusat, Ynot, Etcuban, Cosip families of Opon. These in-law surnames are rare and local; FamilySearch index hits for them in Opon would indirectly confirm the Muñasque entries around them.
11. DNA. No DNA data was supplied. Autosomal tests of descendants from at least three different branches (e.g. Emiliano's, Sotero's and Cosmiano's) would test whether the nine branches really share Fernando and Saturnina as ancestors; Y-DNA from male-line Muñasques would test whether the surname has a single origin. Results give relationship ranges, not exact positions, and cannot by themselves distinguish Fernando from a brother.
12. Follow the Medellin trail (new). Marcos Muñasque was Municipal President of Medellin 1923–1933 (S57) and his wife was a Perez, the surname of his predecessor Pedro Perez; Cosmiano's first wife was a Montesclaros, the surname of Medellin's first municipal president. Medellin's parish and civil registers (1900–1940) and the municipal archive could give Marcos's marriage, his children's baptisms and the family's arrival from Opon.
13. Kolambugan, Lanao del Norte (new). The Official Gazette places Cosmiano Muñasque on the municipal council in 1945–1946 (S58). The Kolambugan civil registry and the parish there should hold his death and his children's records; the January 1946 Gazette page itself still needs to be opened to confirm the 14 Dec 1945 appointment.
14. Two Opon graves (urgent). Find a Grave lists Crisitina Munasque (1930–2006) and Leonora P. Munasque (1944–2012) in the Lapu-Lapu Municipal Cemetery (S62); neither is in the spreadsheet. Their entries are bare transcriptions (no photo, no relatives), so only the City

Health Office burial register or a relative can say who they were. Lapu-Lapu City will exhume remains buried five years or more at the municipal cemetery (Sitio Tugas, Gun-ob) on 15 November 2026, with claims accepted until 14 December 2026 through the City Health Office (032-340-5339); a relative should ask there now, both to identify the two women and to decide about the remains (research/agent8_direct_fetch.md, round 8b).

15. Lower priority: Col. Coronado Muñasque in Philippine Army/Constabulary rosters (his business career is now documented, S59, but not the title); Dr. Ricardo C. Muñasque Jr. in PRC physician lists; Engr. Marlon Cosep in PRC engineer lists; the Tambingag family through Sarangani local records; US/Australian records for the Muñasques abroad.

11. Privacy

Most of the people in generations 5 to 10 are living. The registers contain only what the family's own spreadsheet contains (names, relationships, city-level residences, a few professional titles) plus published facts about public figures. No addresses, contact details or identifiers were collected. The published report page is private by default; share it only with family.

---

12. Deliverables and formats

- `registers/people.csv` — one row per person: ID, name parts, generation, parents, spouses, children, residence, variants, notes, confidence.
- `registers/relationships.csv` — every parent-child and spouse link with its evidence cell, naming check and confidence.
- `registers/sources.csv` — bibliography with record type, repository/URL, original-or-derivative status.
- `registers/research_facts.csv` — facts found outside the spreadsheet, linked to person IDs and sources.
- `registers/discrepancies.csv` — curated and automatic conflict log.
- `registers/overrides.csv` and `variant_map.csv` — every editorial decision that changed the compiler's placement or merged a spelling variant, with reasons.
- `valiente_munasque.ged` — GEDCOM 5.5.1 export (UTF-8). Limits: the spreadsheet records no sex, so HUSB/WIFE are inferred from which surname the children carry; no dates except Emiliano; all notes carry the sheet row for traceability.
- `data.json` — the full tree as structured data, used by the report page and the charts.
- `docs/images/01–06.jpg` — the six labelled AI-generated reconstructions used in §7 and on the printed cover (not photographs; see §7.1).
- `charts/*.svg` — pedigree, overview, nine branch charts, map, timeline, evidence diagram, generation sizes (editable SVG, theme-aware).
- `scripts/` — the parser and chart generators, so the tree can be regenerated when the spreadsheet is corrected.
- `research/` — the eight web-research reports (two rounds, picture research, fact-check, direct reading of the record sites) with every query tried.
- `Munasque_family_report.pdf` — printable edition (A4): the report with its charts and a complete numbered descendant register.
- Family Archive page (artifact) — relatives upload photos, documents and corrections tied to people in the tree.
- Report page (artifact) — interactive tree explorer, all charts, this text, the tables.

13. Research conclusion

Established (moderate confidence): the descent of about 1,300 named people from Fernando Umpad Muñasque and Saturnina Valiente of Opon through nine children; the internal structure of each branch; the family's move from Mactan to the Mindanao settlement areas during the 20th century; Marcos Muñasque's term as Municipal President of Medellin (1923–1933) and Cosmiano Muñasque's seat on the Kolambugan council (1945–1946); the identities and public careers of Benhur Salimbangon, Fr. Rosalio Muñasque, Atty. Benjamin Muñasque, Col. Coronado Muñasque, Atty. Marnito Cosep and the evangelist Sulpicio Muñasque.

Probable but unverified: the dates of Emiliano (1857–1940); that Faustina Ynot and Basilia were later partners of Marcos (not of Fernando); that Elmo D. Muñasque is the 1966 Cebu contractor.

Unverified: Alejandro Muñasque and Saturnina Umpad as Fernando's parents; the probable "Moñasque" entry in the 1849 catalogue as the origin of the surname; every birth, marriage and death in generations 1–4 other than Emiliano's; the Amador Piligro surname story; the whole Tambingag (Muslim) branch beyond the spreadsheet.

Cannot currently be determined: anything before Alejandro; whether Muñasque is a Claveria-catalogue surname; where and when each branch left Opon. All of these are answerable from the Opon parish registers and the Cebu civil registers once those collections are searched with a FamilySearch account or at the Lapu-Lapu City civil registry.

Part B — Descendant register

> Numbering: 1 = Fernando Umpad Muñasque; 1.n = his n-th listed child; deeper numbers follow the same rule. Children are listed eldest to youngest, in the order the family gives them (confirmed by the family, 28 Oct 2026); where no dates exist this order is the family's statement, not a documented fact. “m.” = married/partner. Residence is as given in the branch sheets (c. 2014–2020). Source rows refer to sheet FERNANDO, column A.

1 Fernando Umpad Muñasque m. Saturnina N. Valiente Progenitor of the family as compiled; parents named in the sheet header as Alejandro Muñasque and Saturnina Umpad [S1] The 1849 Catálogo alfabético de apellidos (open transcription) contains, on reprint page 87 among the Moñ- names, an entry read as "monasque"/"moñasque" between "monasca" and "moñascas". If the scan confirms "Moñasque", the family surname is very probably a Claveria-catalogue name adopted in 1850 and respelled with u (Visayan o/u interchange). Umpad, Ynot, Pino and Valiente are also catalogue names; Cosip, Gusat, Salimbangon and Patalinghug are not. [S53] row 2
